Your membership card entitles you to free admission and additional benefits at botanical gardens, arborea, and conservatories throughout North America.

If you enjoy the gardens you visit, consider supporting them with contributions so that they can continue to offer beauty and inspiration to others.

Before visiting any garden, be sure to visit its website or call to verify its hours of operation and get the latest updates on programs and other information. (Links to the websites of all the gardens listed here can be found on the American Horticultural Society's webpage at www.ahs.org/events/reciprocal_events.htm.) Please note that some special events are not included as part of the RAP.

Through the American Horticultural Society's Reciprocal Admissions Program (RAP), current members of any of the gardens listed here are eligible to visit other member gardens at reduced or free admission and receive other benefits such as discounts on gift shop purchases and special events. Simply present your current membership card at the admissions counter or gift shop of the garden you are visiting. In general, each card will only admit the person whose name is listed on the card; in the case of family memberships, some gardens may limit free or discounted admission to two people. Some gardens may require you to show a photo ID.
